

English Language Arts Homework Expectations

Course Level	What does homework look like? How much homework can be expected each week?	What does a typical class period look like?	What does assessment look like?	What skills, attitudes, and work habits are recommended to be successful in this class?
Regular Level English Language Arts Grades 9-11	Homework may include a variety of activities that may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading and annotating of text, ❖ writing to prepare for short or long term assignments such as essays or other in-class activities, ❖ completing activities to prepare for short or long term assignments such as discussions or other in-class activities, ❖ Reading Plus lessons, ❖ take-home assessments such as essays or other projects. Depending on the unit of study, homework may not be assigned every night. On average, expect 20-30 minutes, 3-5 nights per week.	Activities may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ small group/whole group discussions, ❖ close reading and text analysis, ❖ peer conferences, ❖ one-on-one writing conferences with the instructor. Teachers designate class time to alleviate homework load and to prepare for assessments/long-term assignments.	Assessments may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading check quizzes, ❖ objective exams, ❖ written exams, in-class or take-home, ❖ projects, ❖ presentations, small group or individual. 	Students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ create study habits that are consistent, ❖ actively participate in small group and whole group discussions, ❖ be open to exchanges of new perspectives and ideas, ❖ engage in collaboration with peers, ❖ utilize class time efficiently.
Advanced English Language Arts Grades 9-10	Homework may include a variety of activities that may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading and annotating of text, ❖ writing to prepare for short or long term assignments such as essays or other in-class activities, ❖ completing activities to prepare for short or long term assignments such as discussions or other in-class activities, ❖ Reading Plus lessons, ❖ take-home assessments such as essays or other projects. Depending on the unit of study, homework may not be assigned every night. On average, expect 30-60 minutes, 3-5 nights per week	Activities may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ small group/whole group discussions, ❖ close reading and text analysis, ❖ peer conferences, ❖ one-on-one writing conferences with the instructor. Teachers designate class time to alleviate homework load and to prepare for assessments/long-term assignments.	Assessments may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading check quizzes, ❖ objective exams, ❖ written exams, in-class or take-home, ❖ projects, ❖ presentations, small group or individual. 	Students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ have a deep appreciation of literature, ❖ create study habits that are rigorous and consistent, ❖ be prepared each and every day to delve into discussions and analysis surrounding each text, ❖ have an individual investment in their own learning, ❖ strive to be prepared to participate, ask questions, and take initiative.

English Language Arts Homework Expectations

Course Level	What does homework look like? How much homework can be expected each week?	What does a typical class period look like?	What does assessment look like?	What skills, attitudes, and work habits are recommended to be successful in this class?
Senior Literature, Composition, and Communication (SLCC) Grade 12	Homework may include a variety of activities that may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading and annotating of text, ❖ writing to prepare for short or long term assignments such as essays or other in-class activities, ❖ completing activities to prepare for short or long term assignments such as discussions or other in-class activities, ❖ online assignments and activities, ❖ take-home assessments such as essays or other projects. Depending on the unit of study, homework may not be assigned every night. On average, expect 30-60 minutes, 3-5 nights per week.	Activities may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ small group/whole group discussions, ❖ close reading and text analysis, ❖ peer conferences, one-on-one writing conferences with the instructor, ❖ online assignments and activities, ❖ college essays. Teachers designate class time to alleviate homework load and to prepare for assessments/long-term assignments.	Assessments may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading check quizzes, ❖ objective exams, ❖ written exams, in-class or take-home, ❖ projects, ❖ presentations, small group or individual. 	Students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ create study habits that are consistent, ❖ actively participate in small group and whole group discussions, ❖ be open to exchanges of new perspectives and ideas, ❖ engage in collaboration with peers, ❖ utilize class time efficiently, ❖ prepare to develop college level reading and writing skills.
Advanced Placement Language and Composition Grade 11 Advanced Placement Literature and Composition Grade 12 Front Range Community College English Composition Grade 12	Homework may include a variety of activities that may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading and annotating of text, ❖ writing to prepare for short or long term assignments such as essays or other in-class activities, ❖ completing activities to prepare for short or long term assignments such as discussions or other in-class activities, ❖ take-home assessments such as essays or AP exam preparation assessments. Depending on the unit of study, homework may not be assigned every night. On average, expect 30-60 minutes, 3-5 nights per week.	Activities may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ small group/whole group discussions, ❖ close reading and text analysis, ❖ peer conferences, ❖ one-on-one writing conferences with the instructor, ❖ AP exam preparation. Note: AP Literature designates time for college essay work Teachers designate class time to alleviate homework load and to prepare for assessments/long-term assignments.	Assessments may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ reading check quizzes, ❖ objective exams, ❖ written exams, in-class or take-home, ❖ projects, ❖ presentations, small group or individual. 	Students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ have a deep appreciation of language and literature, ❖ continue to create study habits that are rigorous and consistent, ❖ be prepared each and every day to delve into discussions and analysis surrounding each text, ❖ have an individual investment in their own learning, ❖ strive to be prepared to participate, ask questions, and take initiative.